The word "corporation" derives from corpus, the Latin word for body, or a "body of people". By the time of Justinian (reigned 527-565), Roman law recognized a range of corporate entities under the names universitas, corpus or collegium. These included the state itself (the Populus Romanus), municipalities, and such private associations as sponsors of a religious cult, burial clubs, political ...

Financial modeling is the task of building an abstract representation (a model) of a real world financial situation. This is a mathematical model designed to represent (a simplified version of) the performance of a financial asset or portfolio of a business, project, or any other investment.. Typically, then, financial modeling is understood to mean an exercise in either asset pricing or ...
