

leadership in organizations 8th pdf

Leadership is both a research area and a practical skill encompassing the ability of an individual or organization to "lead" or guide other individuals, teams, or entire organizations. Specialist literature debates various viewpoints, contrasting Eastern and Western approaches to leadership, and also (within the West) United States versus European approaches.

The adaptive process requires that organizations move away from status quo. Most organizations, however, are designed as complex systems rather than complex adaptive systems (Stacey, 1995). Complex systems differ from complex adaptive systems in that they are structured for efficiency and control, rather than adaptability (Brown and Eisenhardt, 1997; Eisenhardt and Tabrizi, 1995).
