In linguistics, idioms are usually presumed to be figures of speech contradicting the principle of compositionality. That compositionality is the key notion for the analysis of idioms is emphasized in most accounts of idioms. This principle states that the meaning of a whole should be constructed from the meanings of the parts that make up the whole.

LDS apologists think that only coincidences in their favor are more than coincidences. There are of course many other coincidences with more substance behind them such as the parallels between the View of The Hebrews and the Book of Mormon for example that they summarily dismiss as just a coincidence because those coincidences are damaging to the Joseph Smith story.

By: Randy Engel. Dear Friend and Foe alike " Welcome again to the New Year's issue of OD WATCH. Sorry for the delay in getting this month's issue out to you. The hard drive on my computer crashed in early January and my website at New Engel Publishing was also hit.. It will take a while to get things back in order, so I have created a double- issue which will take us to March 2018.
