Kindergarten Sight Word Sentences Vol. 2

These sight words songs were written by Heidi Butkus, a Kindergarten teacher with more than 25 years of classroom experience, to help children learn to read and memorize the spellings of the most commonly used high frequency words or "sight words." High frequency words (also known as Dolch Words or Fry List Words) are the most common words found in children's books and other print, and so are an important part of a child's foundational skills that help them become emergent readers.
